

Customer Feedback Policy

Introduction

This document sets out the principles and process that enables you to give feedback or make formal complaints about any aspect of the service supplied by Medica Reporting Ltd.

We aim to ensure that:

- Giving feedback or making a complaint is as easy as possible
- We treat your feedback/complaint seriously
- We deal with any complaints promptly* and in confidence
- We learn from feedback and complaints and use them to review and improve our service

(*within specified timescales)

Our approach to feedback and complaints aligns with the principles published by CQC, the Parliamentary & Health Service Ombudsman, current data protection law and other legal or regulatory requirements where applicable.

What is a Complaint?

We define a complaint as any expression of dissatisfaction, justified or not, with our service and which calls for a response. We will fully investigate all complaints, review feedback and learn from subsequent findings so that we can continuously improve our service. These could include, but are not limited to:

- If we do not deliver a service on time or in accordance with our service level agreements
- If we give you incorrect information
- Telecoms, IT systems or Medica procedural issues
- If you have an issue with our customer service
- Positive feedback and/or suggestions
